Being a resume writer and career empowerment consultant has allowed me to touch the lives of many especially my recent graduates and early career professionals, which truly sets my soul on fire. Something as simple as a resume can be a pain point for so many people, but with my expertise I make the process understandable and instantly serve as a confidence booster!

Client Review: I had a consultation with Christina back in November 2019. She was able to provide me with the knowledge on how to navigate finding a job in my field. Alongside, she also allotted my resume and cover letter at a very reasonable price with her college discount. This allowed me to not only have the knowledge, but also the presentation on paperwork. With her help I was able to get an interview (which she also helped me with) and have successfully gotten the job. Do I think I would have gotten the job without her profound knowledge and resources? Definitely not. She is great and I will definitely go back to her for help.
